This Establishment is Now Open to Execute Orders

We have been permitted by the Governor to look over the official documents of the discovery of the secret abolition organization in Northern Florida, and to extract the material part for this statement.

The organization appears to be one recent date. It purports to have been started in the North, and to embrace members of the Northern army in its fold. It also purports to extend to at least several companies of the organized militia of Northern Texas. How far it extends in that direction we are not prepared to say. The bulk of its membership in Texas is in Cook, Wise, Denton, Grayson, etc., counties.—It also reaches down to Austin. Its first pretended object is to resist conscription. The chief object is to keep up a spy system for the Northern army. It has a grip, a sign and a password. In case a member divulges he is to be hunted to the ends of the earth. In case of a draft of the militia to meet a Northern invasion, the members are to go along and desert when the battle comes on. The testimony elicited also points to an invasion of Texas from Kansas. It refers moreover to a concurrent invasion by way of Galveston, and that both armies are to meet in Austin.

The organization has been found to extend to all classes of the community, clergymen, professional men, farmers, etc. Among the number, we are pained to find the name of Dr. R. T. Lively, of Sherman, a member of the Masonic Grand Lodge of this State, and heretofore most highly esteemed, having enjoyed some of the highest offices in that body. The whole substance and machinery of the organization has been discovered. A jury of twelve good men are empannelled in each county, and the guilty parties are brought before it and the evidence taken. It is in every case so conclusive that there is no getting around it. Several of the guilty have, after condemnation, made full confession and while under the gallows declared that they deserved death. In Gainesville twenty-two have been hung. Trials are now going on in all the counties. The testimony goes to show that most of the initiated have joined the society since the 15th of September.

It is very certain that nothing of this character could have gained any formidable dimensions in Texas. It is simply out of the question. The society is now nipped; all its members are known and will hereafter be watched.

The Concert—Harry Macarthy.

This gifted son of Arkansas, but recently a citizen of New Orleans, will appear this evening at Treloar Hall, as "OUR SOUTHERN BARD," in behalf of the Soldier.

Notwithstanding Mr. Macarthy has lost his property in New Orleans, (a portion of which was destroyed by order of Brute Butler and by his command imprisoned and forced to witness the destruction of the products of his own genius,) he is devoting a portion of his tallents and time to minister to the wants of our needy warriors.

In Columbia Mr. Macarthy donated over four hundred dollars, the proceeds of his entertainments, to the Soldier's Aid Society and the Way Side Hospital, and it is to be expected that his talent and devotion will be no less appreciated in this community than in Columbia and throughout the entire South where he has visited and been engaged in the noble cause to which he has devoted himself.

We hope Mr. Macarthy will be greeted this evening by a full audience and that he will favor our fellow citizens with his descriptive knowledge of the actings of Butler and the Roman firmness of some of the citizens of New Orleans who refused to obey the Brute or Minister to his Mangy Menials.

Mr. Macathy is worthy the confidence and warrest sympathy of this community.

For particulars of the performances to take place this evening see advertisement in another column.

Reported Advance of the Enemy on the Blackwater.

Reports (says the Petersburg Express of the 15th inst.) were brought to the city last evening, of an advance of the enemy in force from Blackwater Ford, yesterday morning, and of the subsequent attack on our troops below Ivor. It is stated that the Yankees, several thousand strong, advanced to Blackwater Ford on Thursday evening, driving, back our pickets, and holding possession of the Ford until early yesterday morning, when their force was divided—a portion going in the direction of Franklin, and the balance moving towards Ivor station. Of the further movements of the first portion we are not advised, but of the latter, it is known that a fight occurred at or near Mrs. Boykin's place, about four miles beyond Ivor. We have not learned the result, as our informant left Ivor while the engagement was progressing withing hearing, and almost within sight. The enemy attacked us with cavalry and artillery, and it is supposed their object was to cross the river, which was vigorously contested by our troops. We shall probably hear further particulars to-day.

Blackwater ford is about fourteen miles from Franklin, and eight from Ivor. As reinforcements were rapidly sent forward, it is reasonable to suppose that the Yankees made no headway.

From Europe.

The Steamer Norwegin, from Liverpool on the 23d and Londonderry on the 24th ult., has arrived at Quebec. She brings no political intelligence of importance, and the Northern Associated Press has the following telegraphic summary of the news:

Insurance rates on American ships has advanced 3 to 5 per cent., under the influence of the pirate Alabama's doings.

The London Daily News thinks that the Federal cause never looked so like success in its essential features. The South is almost at the last stage of exhaustion, while the North is nearly untouched in all its resources. All that European nations have to do is to wait. The Times, of course, takes a directly opposite view.

Sir Benjamin Brodie, an eminent surgeon, died in the 21st ult.

At a public meeting held at Oldham, resolutions were offered calling on the Government to recognize the Confederate States. An amendment was offered declaring such recognition impolitic and likely to result in a war with the North. After some uproarious proceedings the original motion was declared carried, although the meeting was about equally divided.

It is stated from Paris that Persigny and Fould had consented to remain in the cabinet, the Emperor having assured them that there is nothing reactionary in his present policy respecting Italy, but that he declined to take any hurried steps with regard to Rome.

There are alarming accounts of Garibaldi's health, and it was even rumored in Paris that he was dead. Turin telegrams of the 23d, however, say that he had been removed to Spezzia, and that he bore his removal well, and that the state of his health had slightly improved.—But the papers still express much apprehension.

MORE STOPPAGE OF SALT.—A private letter received in this city yesterday, from Wilmington, N. C., (says the Augusta Constitutionalist of 14th inst.) states that Gov. Vance, of North Carolina, has directed the Wilmington & Manchester Railroad Company not to carry any more salt out of the State.

[COMMUNICATED.]

Acknowledgements.

The Soldier's Aid Society of this place desire to acknowledge the donation of $103.50 from Messrs. J. H. Stevens and William Tabb, being the proceeds of one night's entertainment, given for the benefit of the Soldiers, on Friday the 7th inst.

The donation was accompanied with the request that it be used for the soldiers from Mecklenburg county.

The Society would assure these gentlemen that they particularly appreciate the kind manner in which they have identified themselves with the interests of this county, and trust that many a suffering soldier may feel the benefit of their liberality.

The Society also desire, in connection with these gentlemen, to record their indebtedness to Mr. Britton in publishing for them; but to him they are indebted for so many and such constant kindnesses that they can make no adequate acknowledgment, although they sincerely appreciate his repeated favors.

Charlotte, N. C., Nov. 13, 1862.

Our Southern Cities.

The city authorities of Savannah, in conjunction with General Mercer commands the post, are making arrangements to remove the non-combatants from the city of Savannah, preparatory to the anticipated attack of the enemy. On the first day of the session of the Legislature, the following resolution was adopted unanimously by the Senate:

Resolved, That in the opinion of the General Assembly of Georgia, the city of Savannah should never be surrendered—that it should be defended street by street and house by house, until, if taken, the victors' spoils should be alone a heap of ashes.

Steps have been taken for the removal of non combatants from Charleston, and the gallant Beauregard, sympathizing with the spirit of the people, declares that he will make a Saragossa defence.

In Mobile active operations are going on to place the city in the best possible condition for resistance. We have no doubt that there, too, the purpose exists never to surrender the city but as a heap of ruins.

This is the true spirit, and the true policy. When we fight them in this style, they will rarely gain a success, and when they do, it will turn to ashes on their lips. Richmond was the first city of the South to resolve to submit to destruction sooner than to pass under the Yankee yoke. She may yet have occasion to prove by example as well as declaration the sincerity of her resolution.

The Removal of McClellan.

The removal of Gen. McClellan, if true, is an indication that some good may come out of the recent political revolution in the United States. Lincoln was early in the summer hard pressed by the radical faction, who put him in power to remove McClellan from the command on the Potomac, but dared not do so for fear of influencing the elections unfavorably. The election is over and the conservatives, who repudiated his proclamation and insurrectionary war policy, having triumphed, he had no alternative but to throw himself into the hands of the radicals, whom he would, previous to his proclamation, have deserted if he could. The everslaughing of McClellan will still further exasperate the conservatives and widen the breach between the democrats and the administration. From this want of concord and the harmony among our enemies some good may result to us.

Foreigners.

The following telegraphic correspondence between Attorney General Whorton of Mississippi, and Secretary Randolph explains itself:

JACKSON, Oct. 22, 1862.

Hon. G. W. Randolph, Secretary of War:

Can a citizen of Switzerland, who has resided five years in New Orleans, but not intending to become a citizen of the country, be conscripted?

T. J. WHORTON,
Attorney General.

RICHMOND, Oct. 22, 1862.

To Hon. T. J. Whorton, Attorney General:

I think not, Five years' residence, not intending to remain permanently, does not constitute a domicil.

G. W. RANDOLPH,
Secretary of War.

Incendiarism.

The authorities and people of the Southern towns and cities cannot be too vigilant in these times. The Augusta Chronicle of the 18th says:

Another attempt was made this morning to fire the stable on the corner of Cumming and Ellis streets, owned by Mr P. Stovall. It was extinguished before any alarm was given. This is the same place which was fired last evening at six o'clock We learn that attempts were made to set fire to the city at several points this morning. Some avainable means must be employed immediately to detect and punish the perpetrators of these villianies. Either the police must be largely increased, patrols established by the citizens, or each citizen be acquired to keep watch over his own premises. The city authorities should move in this matter without delay.

SMALL POX.—We regret to learn that this terrible disease has made its appearance not far from our town. Several cases have appeared at Limestone Springs and in the neighborhood of Sarratt's Ferry.—It was brought from the army by a young Mr. Surratt, who has since died, but not until he had visited several families in his neighborhood. We warn the citizens of Shelby to take every precaution against its introduction.—Shelby Eagle.

☞ Lovejoy, the notorious Abolition Congressman, has been defeated in Illinois. The Washington Chronicle, Forney's paper sums up the probable political complexion of the next House of Representatives, as 85 Union men and 70 Opposition; but admits that the calculation contains some errors.

N. C. Troops—Promotions, &c.

Col. Stephen D. Ramseur, 49th Regiment, promoted to Brigadier General. This promotion makes Lt Col Lee M McAfee Colonel, and Major John A. Fleming Lt Col of the 49th.

Col James H Lane, 28th regiment, promoted to Brigadier General, which makes Lt Col Samuel D Lowe Colonel, and Maj W J Montgomery Lt Col.

We do not know the senior Captains of these regiments who will fill the vacancies in the rank of Major.—Raleigh N. C. State Journal.

"A friend of General Stonewall Jackson told us," says the Richmond "Christian Advocate," a few days ago, that the General remarked he hoped our people would not forget that God giveth the victory." His friend replied that he believed the churches were deeply prayful all over the land. General's face brightened up with pleasure as he remarked, "Then we shall continue to prosper."

BY TELEGRAPH.

European News.

RICHMOND, Nov. 15.

The news from Europe just received is highly interesting.

The London Times says two interpretations are given why the Cabinet meeting, called for the 23d of October, was not held. One is a division in the Cabinet, Sir G. C. Lewis representing one party and Gladstone the other. The Times thinks the true solution is that Lewis expresses the opinion of the whole Cabinet, and while England regrets the shedding of blood she does not mean to interfere.

The Paris correspondent of the N. Y. Journal of Commerce, writing under date of Oct. 25, says:—"There is no likelihood of anything being done by Napoleon, in favor of the Confederates, until after the November Elections."

The English papers seem exercised in consequence of the blockade established by the Yankees over Bermuda Ports, and Admiral Milne has been instructed to increase his fleet at that station and look after Capt. Wilkes' movements.

At a public meeting held at Oldham (Eng.) resolutions were offered calling on the English Government to recognise the Southern Confederacy, which were declared carried. The meeting is represented to have been an uproarious affair.

Persigny and Fould have consented to remain in the French Cabinet on the Emperor's assurance that nothing reactionary in the Italian policy would take place.

Cotton had advanced in the Liverpool market a half penny.

From the United States.

RICHMOND, Nov. 15.

A dispatch dated Washington 10th inst. says no apprehension exists that a Foreign collision will occurr unless it grows out of the course England is pursuing by allowing Privateers to be fitted out in her ports to prey upon American commerce.

The removal of McClellan has created a tremendous excitement throughout the entire North. The indignation of the Democrats is intense.

A letter written by Gen. Halleck to Secretary Stanton says on the 1st of October, McClellan advised a forward movement but on the 6th he peremptorally countermanded the order and refused to execute it, and it is believed that that is the main cause of McClellan's removal and disgrace.

A dispatch from McClellan dated October 22d says portions of his army were without clothing, and he could not move until they were supplied.

In New York and Philadelphia, the removal of McClellan met with no favor. Intense excitement prevailed and the partisans of McClellan were noisy. In their demonstration cheers were frequently proposed and given him.

The opinions of the Northern press is of considerable interest.

The Washington Chronicle says the removal must be regarded as purely a military necessity and question for the purpose of anaugurating active operations in Virginia, which is imperative.

The Herald says McClellan has fallen a victim to the machinations of the radical Abolition faction. That his crime was a persistent refusal to second the cause of Negro Emancipation.

The World says he fell like the sound of a passing bell—that every lover of his country was startled as from a dream.

The Tribune says of McClellan's removal, finding it too late to save his friends but not too late to save his country, the President relieved McClellan from his command of the army of the Potomac, his intimate friends and trusted counsellors being nearly all at heart opposed to an unqualified discomfiture of the Rebels.

The Times says 'tis a melancholy satisfaction to learn that the President of the United States did not keep McClellan in command of the army of the Potomac from any confidence in his capacity or fitness.

The Philadelphia Ledger says the feeling here is one of general regret that the act was done when the army was in the face of the enemy and upon the eve of battle.

Gen. Burnside, on assuming command of the army of the Potomac, issued an order in which he says: "I accept control with the steadfast assurance that the just cause must prevail."

General Burnside's headquarters are at Warrenton, which has been in the possession of the Federals since Thursday the 6th.

Gen. Sickles has gone to the Rappahannock Station, to take command of the position held by Gen. Bayard's cavalry.

All officers belonging to the army of the Potomac are ordered to their several commands immediately.

Hunter returns to take command of the Department of the Carolinas.

From Virginia.

RICHMOND, Nov. 15.

It is ascertained that the Abolitionists have a fleet on the lower James in the neighborhood of Brandon's Bar, but their design or the character of the vessels are not satisfactorily understood.

A report is rife that Gen. Jackson has re-occupied Snicker's Gap.

Parties direct from Culpepper Court says a report prevailed there to the effect that Jackson had performed another masterly trick upon the enemy by moving around and to his rear where he succeeded in capturing their supply trains.

The Examiner has a report that Gen. Joseph E. Johnston has been assigned to the command of the Western Department, comprising Kentucky and Tennessee, and that Gen. Bragg is to exercise command under him. It concludes that the change indicates an action for a vigorous Western campaign.

From the West.

CHATTANOOGA, Nov. 13.

It is reported that Bragg's cavalry made an advance on the entire army of Abolitionists at Lebanon on Wednesday, and they think ing that it was Bragg's army left in double quick time.

McCook's corps, in Nashville, hearing that a general engagement was going on at Lebanon started to reinforce the Yankees and got as far as Gallatin before they found out the mistake.

Morgan is now at the right place.

CHATTANOOGA, Nov. 15.

Nashville dispatches of the 11th just received, states that a wagon train consisting of one hundred wagons with army stores arrived yesterday. The prospect is that the army will be amply supplied in a few days.

There is a large gang at work on the Louisville and Nashville Rail Road South of the Kentucky line and the Road will soon be in running order to Louisville.—The suffering of the people is still very great for want of the necessaries of life.

The dispatch learns that Buell is to be tried by Court Martial at Cincinnati.

Gen McCook's headquarters is on High Street. Gen. Negly occupies the residence of Gen. Zollicoffer.

The river still continues too low for navigation.

The Murfreesboro Banner says that another division of the enemy crossed the Cumberland River on Wednesday.

A [illegible]

TO COTTON AND WOOLLEN SPINNERS!

The Manufacturing and Free Trade Association of the Confederate States will assemble at Augusta, Georgia, on Wednesday, November 19th,

AT 11 O'CLOCK A. M.

All Cotton and Woollen Manufacturers, as well as those who are engaged in the manufacture of factory materials and fixtings, are particularly invited to attend, and, it is as already, to become members of the Association. The subject of placing our Goods in the hands of consumers at reduced rates, the best mode of procuring supplies to keep us in full operation; together with many other matters of serious moment, will be subjects of consideration for the Convention, and it is hoped that every establishment in the Confederacy will be represented.

Manufacturers will be expected on being with them samples and statistics of cost of producing, based on balance sheets of the last twelve months, of the past six months, and of the past 90 days, for such statements are the only means by which the real cost of production can be arrived at. They will also be expected to bring statements of the quantity
